[REDACTED]

1. On the morning of 22 May 1951, the Trost Kaserno in Vienna was still occupied by troops. Fifteen groups of 8 to 10 soldiers each received close-order drill under the supervision of two captains. There was little vehicular traffic at the installation.
- 25X1C 2. No motor vehicles were observed in the yard of the garages near the water tower on Windtenstrasse or in the garages proper. Sentries there wore red-bordered black epaulets. Three tank trucks, including [REDACTED] and a truck carrying fuel drums were seen at the fuel dump at the drill field of the Trost Kaserno.
3. There was no change in the occupation of the garage in Pernertorfergasse. About 30 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets cleaned and repaired motor vehicles under the supervision of two lieutenants.
- 25X1C 4. The garage on Alxingergasse was also occupied. Maintenance work on a truck, two jeeps, and a passenger car was observed. Jeeps [REDACTED] were identified. 25X1C
- 25X1C 5. Many people and motor vehicles were seen in front of the building at 10 Tolbuchinstrasse. [REDACTED] 25X1X
- 25X1C 6. Less traffic than previously seen was observed at the billets at 33 and 34 Leibnitzgasse. The yard of 34 Leibnitzgasse was empty. No personnel were observed there. Ambulance [REDACTED] of the building at 33 Leibnitzgasse. 25X1C
- 25X1AC 7. The field bakery on Davidgasse was in operation. Motor vehicles and [REDACTED] were observed picking up loaves of bread. *
- 25X1A * [REDACTED] Comment. Until 22 May 1951, the report indicates no signs of a forthcoming departure of the components of the 13th Cds Necz Div in the installations mentioned.
